Mr. SHELBY, from the Committee on Appropriations, submitted the following

REPORT

The Committee on Appropriations submits the following report revising the section 302(b) allocation to its subcommittees for fiscal year 2019 set forth in Senate Report 115-260 (May 24, 2018) and revised in Senate Report 115-267 (June 6, 2018), Senate Report 115-273 (June 13, 2018), Senate Report 115-279 (June 18, 2018), Senate Report 115-280 (June 20, 2018), Senate Report 115-287 (June 27, 2018), Senate Report 115-288 (June 28, 2018), Senate Report 115-323 (August 16, 2018), Senate Report 115-337 (September 12, 2018), Senate Report 115-338 (September 17, 2018), Senate Report 115-340 (October 1, 2018), and Senate Report 116-1 (February 14, 2019).

Section 302(e) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, as amended, provides that at any time after a committee reports its allocations such committee may report to its House an alteration of such allocations. This report is submitted pursuant to this section.

The Congressional Budget Act requires that as soon as practicable after a concurrent resolution on the budget is agreed to, the Committee on Appropriations shall submit to the Senate a report subdividing among its subcommittees the new budget authority and total outlays allocated to the Committee in the joint explanatory statement accompanying the conference report on such a resolution. Section 30103 of the Bipartisan Budget Act of 2018 (Public Law 115-123) provides for the Chairman of the Committee on the Budget to file an allocation, consistent with the terms of the Bipartisan Budget Act, to serve as a section 302(a) allocation for purposes of budget enforcement in the Senate. The allocation was filed by the Chairman of the Budget Committee on May 7, 2018 (Congressional Record pp. S2512-2513).

The Committee notes that, under the terms of section 251 of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985, the Chairman of the Committee on the Budget may increase the 302(a) allocation of the Committee on Appropriations if certain conditions relating to funding of specific programs are met. These provisions address such programs as: costs of emergencies (sec. 251(b)(2)(A)(i)); costs of overseas contingency operations (sec. 251(b)(2)(A)(ii)); continuing disability reviews and redeterminations (sec. 251(b)(2)(B)); healthcare fraud and abuse control (sec. 251(b)(2)(C)); reemployment services and eligibility assessments (sec. 251(b)(2)(E)); and disaster funding (sec. 251(b)(2)(D)).

On May 24, 2018, the Committee on Appropriations filed an initial allocation to its subcommittees pursuant to its section 302(a) allocation.

On June 18, 2018, the Committee on the Budget filed a revised 302(a) allocation for the Committee (Congressional Record pp. S3978–3979) reflecting permissible increases in the fiscal year 2019 discretionary allocation. These reflect an increase of $921,000,000 in security budget authority currently designated for overseas contingency operations/global war on terrorism, plus associated outlays.

On August 16, 2018, the Committee on the Budget filed a revised 302(a) allocation for the Committee (Congressional Record pp. S5689–5690) reflecting permissible increases in the fiscal year 2019 discretionary allocation. These reflect an increase of $67,914,000,000 in security budget authority currently designated for overseas contingency operations/global war on terrorism, plus associated outlays, and an increase of $1,897,000,000 in nonsecurity budget authority provided for continuing disability reviews and redeterminations, for healthcare fraud and abuse control, and for reemployment services and eligibility assessments, plus associated outlays.

On September 12, 2018, the Committee on the Budget filed a statement (Congressional Record pp. S6136) affirming that the June 18, 2018 adjustment to security budget authority for overseas contingency operations/global war on terrorism, plus associated outlays, required no further budgetary adjustment at this time since spending was still appropriately designated and consistent with the previously filed levels.

On September 17, 2018, the Committee on the Budget filed a further revised 302(a) allocation for the Committee (Congressional Record pp. S6182–6183) reflecting permissible changes in the fiscal year 2019 discretionary allocation. These changes reflect a reduction of $214,000,000 in outlays designated for overseas contingency operations/global war on terrorism to adjust the further revised 302(a) allocations filed on August 16, 2018.

On October 1, 2018, the Committee on the Budget filed a further revised 302(a) allocation for the Committee (Congressional Record pp. S6411) reflecting permissible changes in the fiscal year 2019 discretionary allocation. These changes reflect an increase of $1,680,000,000 in nonsecurity budget authority designated as an emergency requirement, plus associated outlays.

On February 14, 2019, the Committee on the Budget filed a further revised 302(a) allocation for the Committee (Congressional Record pp. S1378) reflecting permissible changes in the fiscal year 2019 discretionary allocation. These changes reflect an increase of $165,000,000 in security budget authority and $8,000,000,000 in nonsecurity budget authority designated for overseas contingency operations/global war on terrorism, plus associated outlays, $12,000,000,000 in nonsecurity budget authority designated for disaster relief, plus associated outlays, and $10,000,000 in outlays designated as an emergency requirement.

On May 23, 2019, the Committee on the Budget filed a further revised 302(a) allocation for the Committee reflecting permissible changes in the fiscal year 2019 discretionary allocation. These reflect an increase of $2,693,000,000 in security budget authority and $16,428,000,000 in nonsecurity budget authority designated as an emergency requirement, plus associated outlays.
